MR. THOMAS L. FRIEDMAN

The Candidate Will Be Presented by The Honorable M. Kasim Reed

Member, Board of Trustees

Thomas L. Friedman is an internationally renowned author, reporter, and columnist. He became The New York Times Foreign Affairs columnist in 1995. The recipient of three Pulitzer Prizes, he won the 2002 Prize for Commentary, the 1988 Prize for international reporting from Israel, and the 1983 Prize for international reporting from Lebanon. He joined The New York Times in 1981 and was appointed Beirut bureau chief in 1982. He was transferred from Beirut to Jerusalem in 1984, and served as Israel bureau chief until 1988. Previously, he served as chief economic correspondent in the paper's Washington Bureau after a period as chief White House correspondent. In 2005, he was elected as a member of the Pulitzer Prize Board.

The author of five bestselling books, his latest book, Hot, Flat, and Crowded: Why We Need a Green Revolution—and How It Can Renew America, was published in 2008. He is currently writing a book with Michael Mandelbaum about major challenges facing the United States, which is slated for publication September 2011. The World is Flat: A Brief History of the 21st Century, was released in April 2005 and won the inaugural Financial Times/Goldman Sachs Business Book of the Year Award. In 2004, he was awarded the Overseas Press Club Award for lifetime achievement and the honorary title, Order of the British Empire (OBE), by Queen Elizabeth II.

His book, From Beirut to Jerusalem, won the National Book Award for non-fiction in 1989, and The Lexus and the Olive Tree won the 2000 Overseas Press Club Award for best nonfiction book on foreign policy and has been published in 27 languages. He also wrote Longitudes and Attitudes: Exploring the World After September 11 (2002), and the text for Micha Bar-Am's book, Israel: A Photobiography.

He has co-produced, reported, and narrated six documentaries for the New York Times-Discovery Channel: "Green: The New, Red, White and Blue" (2007); "Addicted to Oil" (2006); "Does Europe Hate Us?" (2005); "The Other Side of Outsourcing" (2004); "Searching for the Roots of 9/11" (2003); and "Straddling the Fence" (2003). Also, he is a frequent guest on Meet the Press, Morning Joe, and Charlie Rose. The recipient of numerous honorary degrees, he is a member of the Board of Trustees of Brandeis University, and was a visiting lecturer at Harvard University in 2000 and 2005. He received a B.A. degree in Mediterranean Studies from Brandeis University, and a Master of Philosophy degree in Modern Middle East Studies from Oxford.

He and his wife Ann live in Bethesda, Maryland, and have two adult daughters, Orly and Natalie.

For the Degree of Doctor of Humane Letters

DR. EVELYN BROOKS HIGGINBOTHAM

The Candidate Will Be Presented by Stacey J. Mobley, Esq.

Member, Board of Trustees

Dr. Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham is the Victor S. Thomas Professor of History and African and African American Studies at Harvard University. She is currently the chair of the Department of African and African American Studies and has held this position since 2006. The Duke University Law School invited her to be the inaugural John Hope Franklin Professor of American Legal History, and she holds this position for the academic year 2010-2011. She has thoroughly revised and re-written the classic African American history survey From Slavery to Freedom, and is the co-author with the late John Hope Franklin of this book's ninth edition, published by McGraw Hill in January 2010. She was Acting Director of Harvard's W.E.B. Du Bois Institute in spring 2008. Previously, she taught on the full-time faculties of Dartmouth, the University of Maryland, and the University of Pennsylvania. She was also a Visiting Professor at Princeton University and New York University.

She is the co-editor with Henry Louis Gates, Jr., of the African American National Biography (AANB), 2008 – a multivolume-reference work, which contains more than 4,000 biographical entries and will appear later as an expanded online edition. She also co-edited with Henry Louis Gates, Jr., African American Lives (2004), which served as the forerunner to the AANB. She was the editor-in-chief of The Harvard Guide to African-American History (2001) with general editors Darlene Clark Hine and Leon Litwack, and co-edited History and Theory: Feminist Research, Debates and Contestations (1997).

She is the author of Righteous Discontent: The Women's Movement in the Black Baptist Church: 1880-1920 (1993), winner of numerous book prizes, most notably from the American Historical Association, the American Academy of Religion, the Association of Black Women Historians, and the Association for Research on Non-Profit and Voluntary Organizations. Righteous Discontent was also included among the New York Times Book Review's Notable Books of 1993 and 1994. Her writings span diverse fields – African American religious history, women's history, civil rights, constructions of racial and gender identity, electoral politics, and the intersection of theory and history. One of her most cited and reprinted articles is "African American Women's History and the Metalanguage of Race," winner of the best article prize of the Berkshire Conference of Women Historians in 1993.

She is the recipient of numerous awards, and was most recently inducted into the American Philosophical Society for promoting useful knowledge. In 2008, she was awarded: the Carter G. Woodson Scholars Medallion by the Association for the Study of African American Life and History; the Legend Award from the National Urban League; and Unity First honored her for preserving African American History. In March 2005, AOL Black Voices included her among the "Top 10 Black Women in Higher Education." In April 2003, she was chosen by Harvard University to be a Walter Channing Cabot Fellow in recognition of her achievements and scholarly eminence in the field of history. She earned a Ph.D. degree from the University of Rochester in American History, an M.A. degree from Howard University, and a B.A. degree from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

She continues to uphold the legacy of her late husband, A. Leon Higginbotham, Jr., Federal Court Judge and civil and human rights activist.

For the Degree of Doctor of Science
DR. JOHN BROOKS SLAUGHTER
The Candidate Will Be Presented by Ms. Amy Hilliard
Member, Board of Trustees

A former director of the National Science Foundation, chancellor of the University of Maryland, College Park, and president of Occidental College, Dr. Slaughter has served for many years as a leader in the education, engineering and scientific communities. He is well-known for his commitment to increasing diversity in higher education with a special focus on the STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics) disciplines. He currently serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of the National Action Council for Minorities in Engineering, Inc. (NACME).

A licensed professional engineer, he began his career as an electronics engineer at General Dynamics and, later, served for 15 years at the U.S. Navy Electronics Laboratory in San Diego, where he became Head of the Information Systems Technology Department. Some of his other positions include: director of the Applied Physics Laboratory, and professor of electrical engineering at the University of Washington; academic vice president and provost at Washington State University; and the Irving R. Melbo Professor of Leadership in Education at the University of Southern California.

A member of the National Academy of Engineering (NAE), where he has served on the Committee on Minorities in Engineering, chaired its Action Forum on Engineering Workforce Diversity and served two terms on the NAE Council, he is the 2004 recipient of the Academy's Arthur M. Bueche Award. A Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers, and the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, he was elected to the Tau Beta Pi honorary engineering society and was named Eminent Member of the Eta Kappa Nu honorary electrical engineering association. Also a member of Phi Beta Kappa, he was named to the American Society for Engineering Education Hall of Fame in 1993.

Among the boards of directors on which he has served are IBM, Northrop Grumman, Monsanto, Baltimore Gas and Electric Co., Atlantic Richfield (ARCO), and Solutia, Inc. He was appointed by President Jimmy Carter as assistant director and, later, as Director of the National Science Foundation, and by President George W. Bush to membership on the President's Council of Advisors on Science and Technology.

He earned a Ph.D. degree in engineering science from the University of California, San Diego, a M.S. degree in engineering from the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA), and a B.S. degree in electrical engineering from Kansas State University. He holds honorary degrees from 30 institutions, and is the winner of the Martin Luther King Jr. National Award in 1997 and UCLA's Medal of Excellence in 1989. He was also honored with the first U.S. Black Engineer of the Year Award in 1987.

He and his wife, educational leader Dr. Ida Bernice Slaughter, have two adult children, John II and Jacqueline Michelle.

For the Degree of Doctor of Humane Letters
MARC H. MORIAL, ESQ.
The Candidate Will Be Presented by Mr. Addison Barry Rand
Chairman, Board of Trustees

As President and Chief Executive Officer of the National Urban League (NUL) since 2003, Marc Morial has served as the primary catalyst for an era of change—a transformation for the nearly 100-year-old civil rights organization. His energetic and skilled leadership has expanded the NUL's work around an empowerment agenda, which is redefining civil rights in the 21st century with a renewed emphasis on closing the economic gaps for all Americans, rich and poor. Under his stewardship, the NUL has had record fundraising success towards a $250 million, five-year fundraising goal. He has also secured the Better Business Bureau nonprofit certification, which has established the organization as a leading national nonprofit. His distinguished career, including entrepreneur, lawyer, professor, legislator, mayor and past president of the U.S. Conference of Mayors, spans 25 years as one of the most accomplished servant leaders in the nation.

His creativity at NUL led to initiatives such as the Urban Youth Empowerment Program to assist young adults in securing sustainable jobs, and entrepreneurship centers in five cities to help the growth of small businesses. Also, he created the NUL Empowerment Fund, which has pumped almost $200 million into urban impact businesses, including minority business through both debt and equity investments.

He served two terms as Mayor of New Orleans, Louisiana, and attacked the city's urban problems with vigor. Major crimes decreased 60%, the unemployment rate was cut in half, and the poverty rate decreased according to the 2000 Census. During his tenure, New Orleans won the All-American City Award in 1996 for the first time in 50 years. Also, the city's economy experienced its most dramatic growth in over 20 years as the Convention Center was expanded, new hotels were built, and the Downtown Casino and Sports Arena opened and hosted Super Bowls and Music Festivals, as well as International and Hemispheric Summits. He led the successful effort to relocate the NBA Hornets to New Orleans. As a Louisiana State Senator, he was named Legislative Rookie of the Year, Education Senator of the Year, and Environmental Senator of the Year, while authoring laws on a wide range of important subjects. As a lawyer, he won the Louisiana State Bar Association's Pro Bono Publico Award for service to the poor and disadvantaged. At age 26, he was one of the youngest to argue and win a major case before the state Supreme Court.

A graduate of the University of Pennsylvania with a degree in Economics and African American Studies, he also holds a law degree from the Georgetown University Law Center, as well as several honorary degrees. He serves as an executive committee member of the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights, the Black Leadership Forum, and Leadership 18. He is a board member of the Muhammad Ali Center, and the New Jersey Performing Arts Center. He has been recognized as one of the "100 Most Influential Black Americans" by Ebony Magazine, and one of the "Top 50 Nonprofit Executives" by the Nonprofit Times.

He and his wife, broadcast journalist Michelle Miller, have two young children, and he has an adult daughter.

THE CONFERRING OF DEGREES IN COURSE

The order of presentation of Schools and Colleges for the conferring of degrees is based on two factors—the year of establishment of the School or College and the distinction between graduate and undergraduate programs. The first six Schools and Colleges, beginning with the College of Arts and Sciences and ending with the College of Pharmacy, Nursing and Allied Health Sciences, were established between the years 1868 to 1997. Undergraduate programs are predominant in these six Schools and Colleges. The next five Schools and Colleges, beginning with the School of Divinity and ending with the School of Social Work, were established between the years 1868 and 1945. These Schools and Colleges offer professional graduate level programs. The last School listed, the Graduate School, was established in 1934 and offers graduate-level programs exclusively.

The appearance of a name in this Program is presumptive evidence of graduation, but it must not in any sense be regarded as conclusive. The diploma of the University, signed and sealed by its proper officers, remains the official testimony of the possession of the degree. A single asterisk (*) following a name denotes a posthumous degree candidate. A double asterisk () following a name denotes a dual degree graduate.

THE ALMA MATER

Reared against the eastern sky
Proudly there on hilltop high,
Far above the lake so blue
Stands old Howard firm and true.
There she stands for truth and right,
Sending forth her rays of light,
Clad in robes of majesty;
O Howard, we sing of thee.

Be thou still our guide and stay,
Leading us from day to day;
Make us true and leal and strong,
Ever bold to battle wrong.
When from thee we've gone away,
May we strive for thee each day
As we sail life's rugged sea,
O Howard, we'll sing of thee.

THE PLEDGE

I am a graduate of Howard University.
I am the bearer of the flame of a Howard University education that has brought light to many generations.
It is through the indelible love
and support of my family,
and the courage and sacrifices of my ancestors
that I am here today.
I accept the historic trust of their gifts and pledge to lift others who come after me.

Howard University is my home.
No matter how far I travel from her,
no matter how long I am absent from her,
Howard University is always here for me.
I am defined by the privilege of a Howard University education.
I cannot fail in life; leadership, service, and the search for truth and right will light my way.
My potential contributions to humankind are unlimited,
and I will give them freely and in abundance.

I am a Howard University graduate.
The opportunity of the Howard University experience has conveyed to me a responsibility to assure the strength of this great University.
It is only through my support that the Capstone can remain strong and focused.
I pledge support and understand that it is not a matter of choice, but one of responsibility.
I will never forget that responsibility.
I am a graduate of Howard University!

THE MACE

The mace is the ceremonial symbol of the University and is carried by the University Marshal, Dr. Gary L. Harris, Professor of Engineering and Director of the Howard Nanoscale Science and Engineering Facility (HNF). One of the earliest visual images of the mace is the front-side of the "Narmer Palette" of Ancient Egypt, an oval-shaped cosmetic palette inscribed with human and anthropomorphic figures. King Narmer is depicted on the palette as a mighty conqueror wielding a mace over a symbolic enemy. King Narmer, also known as King Menes or King Midas to the ancient Greeks, unified Upper and Lower Egypt circa 3100 B.C., ushering in the great pyramid building of the old kingdom dynasties (c. 3000-2150 B.C.) of Imperial Egypt. At today's Convocation, the entry of the mace heralds the arrival of the academic procession.

THE BATON

The batons carried by the Marshals and Assistant Marshals of each School are being used to lead the academic procession of the respective Schools and Colleges into and out of the place of the ceremony. The batons are made of wood, painted blue, and tied with red, white and blue ribbons denoting the colors of Howard University.

THE ACADEMIC DRESS

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn at college and university functions date back to the Middle Ages. Monks and students used them to keep warm in medieval castles and halls of learning. From these practical origins, they have developed into the accepted garb which symbolizes scholarly achievement.

Baccalaureate gowns have a long pleated front with shirring across the shoulders and back. They are primarily distinguished by flowing sleeves, pointed at the fingertips. These gowns may be worn either open or closed.

The Master's degree gown is worn open, and the sleeve is cut so that the forearm comes through a slit just above the elbow.

Gowns for the Doctorate degree are also worn open. They carry broad, velvet panels down the front, and three velvet bars on the full, round sleeves. This velvet trimming may be either black or the color distinctive of the degree.

Mortar board or caps worn with baccalaureate and Master's gowns generally have black tassels. The tassel of the doctoral cap is usually made of gold bullion.

The blue Kente stole worn by the graduates was commissioned for the 1996 Commencement by the University and produced in Ghana. The stole depicts the Nkasewa pattern, which means eloquence, wisdom, and intelligence, and the symbol, Fi-Hankra, means safety, security, brotherhood, and solidarity.

Faculty members and guests in today's procession are robed in gowns and hoods which represent the institutions from which they have received degrees.

The hood gives color and real meaning to the academic costume. Its silk lining bears the colors of the institution conferring the degree. The hood is bordered with velvet of prescribed width and color to indicate the field of learning to which the degree pertains as follows: medicine, green; music, pink; nursing, apricot; pharmacy, olive green; public administration, peacock blue; science, gold yellow; social work, citron; theology, scarlet; architecture, blue violet; arts, letters, and humanities, white; business, drab; dentistry, lilac; education, light blue; engineering, orange; fine arts, brown; law, purple; and philosophy, dark blue.

THE HONORS MEDAL AND HONORS CORDS

The Honors Medal is worn by graduates who have achieved cumulative grade point averages making them eligible for the cum laude, magna cum laude, or summa cum laude honors. The Medal and Honors Cords symbolize that excellence is a hallmark of Howard University. The Medal was commissioned by Howard's President Emeritus, H. Patrick Swygert, for the 1996 graduating class. Its round shape is enhanced with a gold finish, symbolizing the eternal and universal value of excellence. The center of the seal asserts the mission of the University – "Truth and Service." Encircling the seal is the phrase, "Honors Graduate and Leadership for America," which heralds excellence and the contributions of Howard University to the nation. The silver Honors Cord symbolizes the high academic rank of magna cum laude. The gold Honors Cord worn by graduates symbolizes the highest academic rank of summa cum laude.

THE TORCH PIN

The Torch Pin symbolizes that responsibility and excellence in leadership have been passed down and entrusted to the graduating seniors. It was commissioned by Howard's President Emeritus, H. Patrick Swygert, for the 1997 graduating class. Its round shape is enhanced with a gold finish, symbolizing the eternal and universal value of excellence. Encircling the seal is the phrase, "Howard University – Bearers of the Torch," which emboldens graduates to go forth in the Howard tradition to serve as beacons of hope and light in their respective communities.

THE UNIVERSITY'S HONORARY DEGREE MEDALS

The University's Honorary Degree Medals worn today by our distinguished honorary degree recipients were formally presented to them at the annual "President's Dinner" held last evening in their honor at the Four Seasons Hotel in Washington, D.C. These medals commemorate the high esteem and honor bestowed upon them as honorary degree recipients at Howard University's 143rd Commencement Convocation.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CHAIN OF OFFICE

The Presidential Chain of Office, worn by President Ribeau, was presented to the University on the occasion of the Centennial Celebration in 1967 by the late Trustee Emeritus, Herman B Wells, and his late mother, Mrs. Granville Wells. The chain symbolizes the current and past holders of the office of President. The basic material of the chain is sterling silver, plated with hard gold. Both the University Seal and the Centennial Seal are appended to the chain.

LIFT EVERY VOICE AND SING

Lift every voice and sing,
Till earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of Liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise,
High as the listening skies.
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.

Stony the road we trod, bitter the chastening rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat, have not our weary feet,
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered,
We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered;
Out from the gloomy past, till now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years, God of our silent tears,
Thou Who has brought us thus far on the way;
Thou Who has by Thy might, led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee,
Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee,
Shadowed beneath Thy hand,
May we forever stand,
True to our God,
True to our native land.
